Join the BIEAWA

The Baking Industry Employers' Association of Western Australia has been proudly serving the baking industry of WA for over 100 years.

A united body means that the Baking Industry has the resolve and representational impact to proactively face the many challenges which the industry now encounters and are likely to confront the industry in the future.

The Baking Industry Employers' Association of Western Australia's goal is to provide the support and motivation to ensure the success and development of the entire Baking Industry.

Never before has the baking industry faced as many challenges as it does today. Apart from the normal issues of industrial relations, workplace safety, food standards and increasing government compliance, the industry is now faced with the concerns of nutritional value of products and the effect on health and obesity.

There has never been a more important time to be a member of your baking industry association - the Baking Industry Employer's Association of WA (BIEAWA).

ONLY the BIEAWA represents the baking industry in work cover issues.

ONLY the BIEAWA represents the baking industry in industrial relations issues.

ONLY the BIEAWA represents the baking industry in food safety issues and planning.

ONLY the BIEAWA represents the baking industry in training and further education of the industry.

ONLY the BIEAWA represents the baking industry in the promotion of products and services
