

The 2008 Australian Baking Industry National Scholarship Awards - Update!

By: Craig Perry

As we go to press, entries in this year's 18th Annual Australian Baking Industry National Scholarship Awards – will be out with the respective independent judging panels for assessment... and there's a lot at stake!

This year there are again up to four Regional Scholarships to be won in the Arthur E Denison Trophy category (over 25s) AND up to four Regional Scholarships to be won in the Sydney J Packham Baking Industry Medal category (18 to 24s)...so there's a lot at stake!

Regional winners will be announced in the first week of October. They will all then meet up in Sydney on Sunday, October 26 for an afternoon of sightseeing and relaxation before embarking on two terrific days of industry visits to and meetings with some of Australia's best bakery outlets. On "Day 4" Regional winners get the opportunity to spend the day meeting fellow bakers, pastrycooks and business owners at this year's Australian Society of Baking's "Super Sydney, Brilliant Brighton conference."

The culmination of their scholarships comes later that same night (October 29) when they attend the Annual ASB Chairman's Dinner, are presented with their Regional Scholarship silver salver or medal and then...the BIG announcements...the naming of the National Winners of both the Arthur E Denison Trophy (and a scholarship trip to the USA) and the Sydney J Packham Baking Industry Medal

(and a trip to Singapore with a course at the Callebaut Chocolate School included)

The Regional & National Scholarships are both made available as a result of the generous support and sponsorship of Peerless EOI and if you'd like to be a part of the scholarships either this year or next, then here's a brief check list to help you decide...
